COMMITTEE MEETING

A MEETING WILL BE HELD
IN THE Y. M. C. A.
ON WEDNESDAY EVENING,
JUNE 4, AT 8.15,
TO COMPLETE THE FINAL
ARRANGEMENTS
ALL MEMBERS OF COMMIT-
TEES ARE REQUESTED TO BE PRESENT.

Exhibits open to anyone who has been able to grow any of the flowers listed in another column, may enter them for exhibition, provided they are delivered at the Y. M. C. A. Building on the second floor, between 11 A. M. and 1 P. M. on June 7.

Judges will select the prize winners between 1.30 and 3 o'clock, at which time the complete exhibit will be opened to the public.

The following well-known authorities on flowers have consented to act as Judges:

Mr. Fred J. Michell, Jr., of Henry F. Michell & Co.

Mr. Mendelson S. Meehan, of Thomas Meehan & Sons.

Mr. Samuel Newman Baxter, of Horticultural Hall, Fairmount Park.

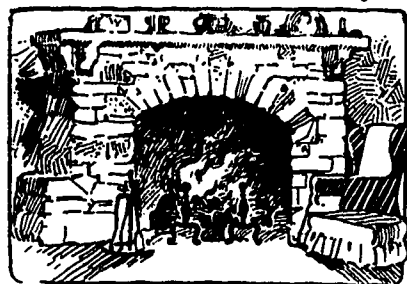

Please bring your own vases or containers to exhibit the flowers and also attach a ticket giving the exhibitor's name and the number of the class for which the exhibit is intended.

This year elaborate plans are being made to decorate the entire second floor at the Y. M. C. A. Building, and in addition to the Show itself, to have a "get-together" party for all those who are interested in growing flowers and for those who like to come and admire them.

Seasonable refreshments will be served by the ladies of the committee, assisted by their many aides, and in addition to this there will be seeds and cut flowers for sale, as well as candy and other things of interest to the children and grown-ups, too.

Mrs. James G. Foote is general chairman of the committee and will appreciate any assistance that can be given to help make the show a bigger success.

In the past years the children's exhibits of wild flowers has been one of the most prominent features of the Show, and this year there will be prizes given of War Savings Stamps and Thrift Stamps for the four best arranged vases or baskets of wild flowers. There will be two classes, one for children between the ages of 5 and 10, and one class for those between the ages of 10 and 15.

THE FIRESIDE

Buy War Stamps and Thrift Stamps.

Mrs. Baker will spend the entire summer at the shore.

War Savings Stamps earn more than 4 per cent. interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Haws drove to Baltimore over the week end.

Henry Howes is home and we are glad to see him about old Narberth again.

Mrs. H. R. Hillegas, of Elmwood avenue, has returned from South Bend, Indiana.

Wouldn't it be great if somehow we knew you, yourself, were interested in our local Y. M. C. A.?

Mr. Dick Kirchner, of Philadelphia, spent the week end with Bob Moyer, 329 Conway avenue, Narberth, Pa.

Just oversight, isn't it, that your membership application has not reached our Y. M. C. A.?

Are you coming to the June fete on June 14th, in the Y. M. C. A.? The Women's Auxiliary will be glad to welcome you.

Mrs. Francis H. Baker, of Windsor avenue, has rented her home furnished to Dr. Ellis Gardner Robertson, U. S. Navy.

The W. F. M. S. of the M. E. Church will meet at the home of Mrs. R. H. Shaffer, 110 Chestnut avenue, Monday, June 2nd, at 2.30 o'clock.

The small but steady savings are as amazing in their total as they are easy to lay aside. Buy War Stamps and Thrift Stamps.

On Saturday, June 14th, a June fete will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Building, details of which will be given in a later issue of Our Town.

The Centenary program was a wonderful success, and the Methodist Church of Narberth subscribed about $1,000 over its yearly quota.

Mrs. Blair Ramey, of Altoona, and her daughter and Mrs. Richard Trowbridge and her two children have bought a house on Montgomery avenue, where they are now living.

James S. McQuiston has received a beautiful bronze medal and bar from the Adjutant General's office at Harrisburg for distinguished service on the Mexican border in 1916.

Laughable comedy trial, Smythe vs. Smith, and many other amusing features by the members of the Children's Church of the "The Little Church upon the Hill." Date to be announced later.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church are making preparations for their annual strawberry festival on Thursday, June 9th, at the church. Everybody is welcome.

The members and friends of the Methodist Church are urged to be present at the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper next Sunday morning. At least fourteen new members will be received at the service.

run on Powell's single. The Narberth Club could not come back in the tenth and the visitors landed the bacon.

Narberth drew first blood when they cashed in three runs in the opening inning without the semblance of a hit, a walk, hit by pitched ball and errors by Ebert and Kay doing the damage.

Drexel Hill went one to the good in the third, when Mendenhall, who did a good day's work with three hits, singled and was sacrificed to second; Eddows and Powell hit clean to right field on Durbin and when Kay drove a high one to the same garden, Rogers pulled a Snodgrass muff and the total of four runs had crossed the plate, with Drexel Hill making it one more in the fifth inning.

All the time Eddows was keeping the plate clear, aided by many pieces of fine fielding by Ebert and Burnley, until the ninth inning, when the Boroughites came up strong—with revenge in their eyes. Henzy batted in the pinch and hit safely. Durbin cut one in the infield and on a bad throw Henzy went to third and Durbin to second. Rogers came right up to the mark with a clean single, bringing both home with the tying run, but the Narberth Club would not have the punch to win out.

The Hillers then cashed in the winning run in the tenth as related above.

Editorial

Our communications are always interesting. Why don't you write Our Town a letter regarding some particular local subject? It would be greatly appreciated by the editor and our readers.

The Annual Flower Show in Narberth is getting to be one of the big events of the year. Such local events should be encouraged, and every one should turn in and make the Narberth Flower Show a long remembered affair.

Local items are always interesting. You do not have to send us a quantity of them to be acceptable. We are thankful for even one or two. A few items from many people will make Our Town a very newsy sheet indeed.

Once more it seems necessary to state that Our Town will not print unsigned communications. It is not necessary that your name be printed in connection with any letter that you may write to the paper, but the editor must know who the writer is or the letter will not be published.

To see the work under way on the gutters and curbs of Haverford avenue is a great relief as well as a credit to our Borough in getting this work started after so much delay. Our Street Commissioner spares no effort in looking after our Borough's interests, and much credit is due him for the progress that has been made, and the good condition in which our streets have been kept.

While our local team lost its opening game with Drexel Hill, yet such baseball as was played by our boys was a great credit to any community. The loss of a game matters little, but where such clean-cut young men enter into friendly competition in such a wholesome sport as baseball, every one of us should encourage them by our presence at the games played on the home ground.

We have missed our team during the period of the War, but now that it is with us again let us root for our boys, and place Narberth at the front in the baseball ranks, where she stood a few seasons ago.

A number of members of the Civic Association have extended assurances to the Editor of Our Town that they will do all in their power to keep the paper going. They recognize the value of this little publication as a medium for keeping a record of current events, as well as for giving advance notice of coming events. There is nothing that takes its place, as circulars and other notices sent through the post office are often mislaid and forgotten. Our Town is a constant reminder, and frequent reference is made to it by all engaged in local activities.

We are glad to receive evidences of appreciation, while in several instances have been accompanied by substantial checks to help meet the deficit caused by the failure of individuals to pay the small subscription price. It is now proposed to issue bills regularly, and to stop sending the paper to those who do not remit. In this connection, we again appeal to our local merchants to help themselves by helping Our Town. The small cost of a regular advertisement will be many times repaid by the publicity given.

ASHES AND GARBAGE.

There is a man in our town,
And he is wondrous wise;
He arranged collecting garbage,
According to its size.

He also made a schedule
Of where it can be got,
Also the containers,
In which it should be sot.

His mind then turned to ashes,
And here is where he fell,
For all of his arrangements
Have ended up in —!

Some people use a coal stove
To cookulate their cats
Instead of burning gas heat
To separate their sweets.

The ashes pile upon them
Until collection day,
It's up to them to do their work
Or else the ashes stay.

Right up against the heater,
In the cellar cold and damp,
And if you do not put them out
You've got yourself to thank.

Persuasion has been useless
To enable Johnny Jones
To have the ashes taken out
With all his chicken bones.

And if you mix some cinders
With your rhubarb tops and grass
The garbage to the acid test
Must then be made to pass.

Of times when I'm dreaming
Of castles built in Spain,
I hear the ashman passing
And come to earth again

I put on all my clothing
Of years apast and dead,
And hie me to the cellar
From out my trundle bed.

I heave a ton of refuse
Upon my dear front lawn,
And then I hear from wife
That the ash men just have gone!

I hope that some arrangement
Can be made with General Hump
That a tip may take my refuse
To the municipal dump.

So that sometime in the future
My dreams are not disturbed
By something very different
From the migratory bird.

RECITAL BY PUPILS OF FANNY H. LOOS.

An interesting recital by the pupils of Miss Loos was given at the Y. M. C. A. last Saturday afternoon, May 24th. Those who participated were Misses Dorothy Bottoms, Marion Bottoms, Elizabeth Bowman, Josephine Cook, Ella Dothard, Marion Enburg, Louise England, Elizabeth England, Florence Frear, Mabel Kirkpatrick, Sina Ligrest, Dorothy Shenneman, Honora Snyder and Masters Arthur Hurth, Aldine Siler and Joseph Snyder.

The compositions selected were such as were suitable to the age and progress of the performers. Most of those who took part had appeared in previous recitals, and showed gratifying progress in technique and interpretation. The parents and friends of the pupils who attended showed their appreciation by generous applause and congratulated the teacher on the results of her work.

PROPOSAL.

Bids will be received by the Committee on Highways and Sewers of the Borough of Narberth on June 9th for the necessary repairs to gutters in front of properties Nos. 100, 102, 101, 104, 106 and 114 Dudley avenue.

Specifications for the work and other information necessary can be secured at the office of Mr. Humphreys, Street Commissioner, Elm Hall, Narberth.

Committee on Highways and Sewers reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

WALTON M. WENTZ,
Chairman Committee on Highways and Sewers.

$1,800 A YEAR JOB GOES BEGGING IN CYNWYD.

Not a Single Applicant Appears to Take Examination for Postmastership.

None seems to want to be Postmaster of Cynwyd, although the office pays an annual salary of $1,800. The present Postmaster, Charles W. Hansell, sent his resignation to Washington several weeks ago. The U. S. Civil Service Commission advertised that a competitive examination would be held at Narberth last Wednesday, but when the day arrived not a single applicant appeared to take the examination.

It was expected that the clerk in the Cynwyd office would seek to succeed Mr. Hansell, but so far she has made no effort to obtain the well-paying post.

Mr. Hansell insists that he wants to retire immediately to enter private business, and if he quits before his successor has been named it will devolve upon his bondsman to provide a substitute.

be held June 10th on the corner of Forrest and Windsor avenues by the Women's Community Club of Narberth. Further particulars in a later issue.

The average Narberth lot is hardly large enough for a henry, and every one does not fancy the feathered ones. Eggs are quoted high, so why not put in that garden some nice egg plants?

Mrs. Stiekney says that the Y. M. C. A. Directors and wives and the Auxiliary members and their husbands who fail to attend the regular monthly meeting next Monday evening will surely miss a treat.

Owen Humphreys, who is attending school at Annapolis, is playing first base on the 'Varsity baseball team, and will participate in the West Point game today between the Army and Navy. Owen will shortly start on a three months' cruise.

In order to safeguard ownership of P. P. packages, senders are urged to inclose in every parcel a card or label bearing the name and address of both sender and the addressee so as to obviate loss when the label or tag on the outside is destroyed or lost.

The officers and directors of the Narberth Building and Loan Association held one of their periodical get-together meetings on Tuesday evening, the 27th. Dinner at Kugler's, seats for "Fiddlers Three" at the Forrest, and then—straight home.

Mrs. C. L. Smith is chairlady of the Refreshment Committee for next Monday's Y. M. C. A. Directors' and Auxiliary meeting. That means something fine is in store for those who attend these important business meetings and the joint social gathering.

A top-notch Entertainment Committee is making up an attractive program for the monthly social of the Y. M. C. A. Auxiliary and Directors. If you, your wife, or your husband belong to either of these bodies, you are cordially invited to attend, Monday evening, June 3rd.

Parcels must be securely wrapped and tied, or they will not be accepted for mailing.

It has been found that practically all parcels which are carefully wrapped and tied reach their destination in good condition. Postmasters and clerks are therefore instructed to exclude from the mails all parcels which are unsecurely wrapped and tied.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Loughlin, of Chestnut avenue, entertained at dinner on Friday evening in honor of Lieut. Colonel Franklin P. Haller, Jr., and Sergeant Louis Haller, of the 28th Division. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Franklin P. Haller, the Misses Haller, Lieut. Col. Franklin P. Haller, Jr., Sergt. and Mrs. Louis Haller, of Folecroft, Delaware County, and Mr. James W. Acheson, of Philadelphia.

The next regular meeting of the Women's Auxiliary will be held on Monday evening, June 2nd, at 8 o'clock. The hostesses will be Mrs. C. L. Smith, Mrs. J. W. McAniff, Mrs. Clarence Metzgar, Mrs. Clegg and Mrs. C. M. Irwin. There will be an attractive program under direction of Mrs. George Merritt Davis, chairman, and we will be glad to welcome a large number of members and friends of the Y. M. C. A.

She was a slip of an orphan girl, one blessed with a vivid imagination, and she told most wonderful stories of the goblins, the fairies, and the other inhabitants of the land of make believe. For a time she was happy, and then came the day when she left the orphan home to work for her farmer uncle. Little Orphan Annie's life from then on is delightfully told in the photo-drama of James Whitecomb Riley's famous poem, to be shown at the Palace Theatre, Ardmore, on Wednesday.

Miss Ethel Ridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will K. Ridge, formerly of Narberth, was awarded a Teacher's Certificate by the Coombs Conservatory of Music, Philadelphia, at the thirty-fourth annual commencement exercises of the school, which were held in the Academy of Music on Wednesday evening last. Formerly a musical education was not considered complete unless all or a part of it had been pursued in Europe. It is deplorable that this fallacy was not recognized until after thousands of these students were com-

Narberth Woman and Girls' Night at the Y. M. C. A. at Ardmore

On Friday evening, June 6, 1919, the women and girls of Narberth are to be entertained at a swimming party at the Y. M. C. A. at Ardmore. Every one is urged to come prepared to have a good time. Be sure to bring your bathing suits and caps, for we have a fine clean pool.

Bowling, games and dancing will all be features of the party and every one is urged to come. Party will start at 7.30 P. M. and continue until 10 P. M., when the pool will close.

No charges made for any of the privileges that evening to the Narberth women and girls.

Come and be the guest of the Women's and Girls' Department of the Lower Merion Department of the Philadelphia Y. M. C. A. at Ardmore.

Don't forget the date, Friday, June 6, 1919, at 7.30.

AUTO ACCIDENT.

Narberth Party Injured in Collision With Trolley.

Three young men and a girl were injured Sunday night when the motor car was struck by a trolley at Fifty-second and Jefferson streets, Philadelphia.

They are Joseph McGuire, eighteen, 210 Woodbine avenue, Narberth; Nan Bakey, seventeen, 526 North Fifty-fourth street; Paul Odell, sixteen, Narberth, and George Markel, 100 Narberth avenue. All but McGuire were treated at the West Philadelphia Homeopathic Hospital, for cuts about the face and head.

The accident occurred when McGuire, who was driving the car north on Fifty-second street, attempted to turn west on Jefferson street, in front of a south-bound car. Before he could cross the tracks his motor was hit and turned over on its side, spilling the occupants on the street.

The latest report is that Odell is as yet quite ill, and it is doubtful whether or not his skull has been fractured.

The Women's Auxiliary

The regular monthly meeting of the Auxiliary will be held on Monday evening, June 2nd. The hostesses are much interested in their portion of the evening's pleasure, as is also Mrs. George Merritt Davis, chairman, who promises an excellent program of music. We will be glad to welcome all members at 8 o'clock promptly, and friends of the Y. M. C. A. at nine.

The question of paramount importance before the Auxiliary at this time is the procuring of the six hundred dollars necessary for placing a new roof on the Y. M. C. A. Building. About one-third of the amount is already in bank, and there is a delightful feeling of optimism among this group of busy women that the balance will be forthcoming in the near future.

On June 14th, afternoon and evening, a June fete will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Building. This fete will assume the characteristics of the regulation strawberry festival, with several novel features on which the committees are working at present. The admission will be free. Refreshments, including ice cream, strawberries and cake, will be served for 25 cents.

We cordially invite you to jot this date on your memorandum book and come over and enjoy a plate of cream with us, then as you saunter through the building to the strains of a good orchestra, you will likely see just the plant for which you have been looking for that bare space in your garden. Please remember the proceeds of this fete will help the roof fund.

SCHWALM—MILLER.

On Wednesday afternoon, May 28th, 1919, Bruce F. Schwalm, a relative of Mrs. Dando, of Narberth, was united in marriage to Miss Enola Miller, of Donaldson, Pa., by the Rev. F. M. Gray, in the Methodist Episcopal Church. Mr. Schwalm was a member of a church in Tioga of which Mr. Gray was pastor. After refreshments were served in the parsonage, Mr. and Mrs. Schwalm left on a trip through New England.

AN IMPRESSIVE MEMORIAL SERVICE.

Last Sunday morning at the Methodist Episcopal Church, a memorial service was held for the two of the church service flag who were killed in France during the war. The service was copied after the Grand Army custom for their deceased comrades. An empty chair covered with the American flag was on each side of the pulpit. The veterans present stood at attention while the names were read by Mr. C. E. Kreamer. The colors were dipped while Mr. F. C. Patten gave a muffled roll on the drum and closed the service with taps. After the morning service a memorial tree, which had been planted, was dedicated in memory of James H. Compton with appropriate exercises, just as one had been dedicated last fall in memory of Lieut. Harold Spearman. The church thereby shows this permanent memorial to these two fine young men who gave all for their country. The wreaths that had been placed on the empty chairs were put on the trees, as the graves are in France.

MEMORIAL TREE PLANTED IN HONOR OF STATE COLLEGE MAN.

Captain Kirby B. Sleppy, a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College with the class of 1911, and who was killed in France, has been honored by the residents of Northumberland, his birthplace. They have planted an elm tree in his honor on the grounds of the Charles Steele public school building, where he was graduated before entering Penn State.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow townsman, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 3 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
